

SUMMARY

Stipa capillata in the Cedyński Landscape Park (Western Poland)

In the years 2002-2004 17 new sites of the protected grass Stipa capillata were recorded in the western part of Cedyński Landscape Park, on the edge of the Odra Valley. Nearly all S. capillata sites are threatened to some extent, mainly by secondary succession and afforesting.