

SUMMARY

Epipactis palustris (L.) CRANTZ on the exploitation hollow of the „Brickwork Gnaszyn” in Częstochowa

In the summer of 2004 a new locality of Epipactis palustris was found in Częstochowa. The plant grows on the exploitation hollow of the “Brickwork Gnaszyn”. Its population consists of about 550 individuals. The greatest danger for the new locality is very intensive exploitation of clay.