

SUMMARY

Worthy of protection natural site “Pluski” in the Olsztyńskie Lake District

Coniferous forests ecosystems are relatively rare in the Olsztyńskie Lake District. Scots pine fresh coniferous forest can be found in Pluski forest district (Stawigunda commune). There occur also some protected plant species such as an orchid Goodyera repens. Thus, the area should be protected, for example as an ecological interest.