

SUMMARY

Kazimierski B. Preservation and monitoring of ground water in Poland.

Chrońmy Przyrodę Ojczyznę (64), 5: 60–77, 2008.

Accepted in Poland system of preservation of ground water take under consideration power of pressure, natural immunity ground water systems permeability of pollutions and preservation area connected with the job it suppose to do, ecological function and management. Monitoring of ground water is basic tool of assessing of water levels, resources, chemical and control of protection and regeneration.